a. Complete details such as name, address, email address, phone number, IP address, etc.

(iv) Pass a temporary order directing the Defendant Nos. 12-20, their directors, partners, proprietors, affiliates, and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on their behalf, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, to block access (on real time basis) to the various websites identified by the Plaintiff in the instant suit at S. No. 1 of the Documents (and such other websites which are discovered during the course of the proceedings and notified on Affidavit by the Plaintiff to have been infringing the Plaintiff's Exclusive Rights);

(v) Pass an order directing the Defendant Nos. 21-22 to issue a notification calling upon the various internet service providers

registered under it to block access to the various websites identified by the Plaintiff in the instant suit at S. No. 1 of the Documents (and such other websites which are discovered during the course of the proceedings and notified 13 on Affidavit by the Plaintiff to have been infringing the Plaintiff's Exclusive Rights).

12. As per the pleadings and arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the plaintiffs that plaintiff No. 1, i.e. DAZN Limited, is a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales in the year 2007 and plaintiff no. 2 i.e., DAZN Software Private Limited oversees operations in India and are incorporated under the provision of the Companies Act, 2013 since the year 2022.

13. The plaintiffs are engaged in the business of providing a global sports streaming and entertainment platform, and they also offer live and on-demand/ over-the-top (OTT) sports broadcasting in over 200 countries. Further, the plaintiffs also own and operate the online streaming platform/ website <https://dazngroup.com/> and <https://www.dazn.com/en-IN/home> and its mobile application (“DAZN streams”) and which embeds highly evolved video streaming technology and provides a vast library of sporting content inter alia football, martial arts, tennis, and snooker.

14. The plaintiffs have acquired certain exclusive media rights for FIFA Club World Cup 2025 (“Event”) on 19.05.2025 with the broadcasting rights worldwide including within India, through television rights, digital rights to be exercised via 2 digital delivery systems including through internet and mobile technology, along with certain ancillary rights i.e. sub-licensing (“Exclusive Rights”) in respect of the event taking place from 14.06. 2025 to 13.07.2025 in the United States of America. Further, the learned counsel for the plaintiffs submits that by virtue of Section 37 of the Copyright Act, 1957, the plaintiffs have the Exclusive Right to broadcast, re-broadcast, retransmit, stream, and make available for viewing and/ or communicate to the public.

15. Pertinently, on 17.05.2025, the plaintiffs came to know via investigators that rogue defendants nos.1-6 (“defendant websites”) have/ are illegally broadcasted/ broadcasting the DAZN streams of the recently concluded event i.e., Ligue 1, and the ongoing event i.e., Series A on their websites without permission/ license from the plaintiffs. Therefore, on 18.05.2025, the plaintiffs issued notice to the incumbent DNRs upon discovering the infringing activities of the defendant websites. Additionally, the defendant website was not streaming independent broadcasts but rather was streaming DAZN streams by illegally circumventing its exclusive streaming mechanism, and the defendant websites are engaging in providing pirated content and are being financially enriched by the same.

16. It was further submitted that a fresh cause of action arises against the defendant websites (known and unknown) every time such defendants communicate to the public, host, advertise, stream and/ or makes available for download and viewing the Event and the content related thereto, anywhere in India, including Delhi, without obtaining requisite permissions. Pertinently, due to the very nature of the internet, lack of any geographical boundaries, and effective enforcement mechanisms to curb the blatant online illegal activities, the plaintiffs have arrayed the domain registrars of the websites named along with the rogue defendant websites as defendant nos. 7-11 (“DNRs”). For the sake of convince the domain name registrants for each rogue defendant website are produced hereinbelow as under:-

Defendant No.	Website	DNR	Defendant No.
1.	buffsports.me	1API Gmbh	7.
2.	sporthd.me	NETIM	8.
3.	piratemediame	NameCheap, Inc.	9.
4.	vipbox.lc	Tucows Domains Inc.	10.
5.	strimsy.top	Sarek Oy	11.
6.	vipstand.pm	Sarek Oy	11.

17. The learned counsel for the plaintiffs submits that in view of the lack of an effective enforcement mechanism, the plaintiff has impleaded the internet service providers as defendant nos. 12-20 (“ISPs”) and they are engaged in the business of providing internet and telecommunication services to the public and are the gateways that enable access to such rogue defendant websites. Similarly, the plaintiffs have also arrayed the defendant Nos. 21 i.e., Department of Telecommunications and Defendant No.22, the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, since they are instrumental for the functioning of the defendant websites. Lastly, the unknown defendants have been impleaded as ‘John Doe’/ defendant no. 23 to address future rogue websites that may emerge.

18. This Court heard the submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the plaintiffs and perused the documents filed along with the plaint.

19. The present case, prima facie, appears to be a classic case of copyright infringement by masked players like the defendant nos.1 to 23, who use the veil of today’s technology to conveniently conceal their true identities and unabashedly abuse and enrich themselves by using the protected works of parties like the plaintiff herein through URL redirection/ masking, etc. Such entities are sprouting and have to be stopped at the earliest given opportunity. If the same is not done, undoubtedly the legitimate rights of parties like the plaintiff herein would be put in serious jeopardy.

20. In light of the above, under the present scenario, especially, since the plaintiffs are legally rightful owners of the intellectual property rights therein, i.e. both qua its original works as well as the licensed works for exclusive broadcasting, the plaintiff is well and truly entitled to seek and obtain protection. More so, since the infringing acts of the defendant nos.1 to 23 are without obtaining any kind of permission/ authorization/ right/ title/ interest from the plaintiffs.

21. Therefore, the plaintiff has been able to make out a prima facie case in its favour and against the defendants and the balance of convenience is also tilting towards the grant of relief in favour of the plaintiff. If an ex parte ad interim injunction in favour of the plaintiff is not granted, the plaintiff will likely suffer irreparable loss and injury.

22. In effect, the plaintiff is seeking a ‘dynamic+’ injunction, a form of injunctive relief which is being granted by Court(s) in similar matters in the recent years, primarily with a view to protect parties like the plaintiff herein against rapidly developing online infringement platforms. For instance, the Bombay High Court, in a case bearing no. I.A. (Lodging) 10257/2023 titled Applause Entertainment Private Limited v. Meta Platforms Inc. & Ors., which was a case involving audio-visual extracts of certain “web-series” being streamed illegally on multiple platforms, granted real time relief in the form of a ‘dynamic+’ injunction to the plaintiff therein. Similarly, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Universal City Studios LLC v. Dotmovies.baby 2023:DHC:5842 has also, while granting such a ‘dynamic+’ injunction, observed that any injunction granted by this Court ought to be effective in nature.

23. Furthermore, such a relief is called for in the present matter, especially, in view of the fact that the Exclusive right pertain to the renowned FIFA WORLD CUP, any delay in blocking these “rogue websites” would, in fact, result in irreparable loss and injury to the plaintiffs and cause violation of the intellectual property rights of the plaintiffs.

24. Consequently, during the pendency and after the competition if, any further domain names, such as mirror/ redirect/ alphanumeric variations of the domains associated with the defendants websites are discovered which are illegally streaming and communicating content over which the plaintiffs have certain rights, the plaintiffs will be at liberty to communicate the details of these domain names to their concerned DNRs, if available, or in the alternative to the defendant nos.12 to 20 being the ISPs for blocking the said websites. As such, upon receiving the said intimation from the plaintiff, the concerned ISPs and DNRs shall take steps to immediately block the said domain names associated with the defendant websites on real time basis.

25. Upon the plaintiff taking requisite steps, issue notice to defendants through all permissible modes returnable before the Court on 08.10.2025.

26. Reply(s), if any, be filed within four weeks from the date of service. Rejoinder(s) thereto, if any, be filed within two weeks thereafter.

27. List before Court 08.10.2025.
